

Notice Regarding Business Communications Policy

From the standpoint of our internal policy and compliance with applicable Japanese laws and regulations, our company generally does not conduct or respond to business communications outside of regular office hours (9:00 a.m. – 5:30 p.m.).

Furthermore, if you have obtained any personal contact information of our employees, we would appreciate your cooperation in refraining from using it for business or any other purpose. Please direct all future business communications to our official company email address.

If a meeting or discussion is necessary, our company will arrange an official online meeting link and provide formal notice accordingly.

We appreciate your understanding and cooperation.
